GEN. HARRISON MUST CONSIDER PO-LITICAL FACTS.

He Must Not View as Foreign Trade and the War as Issues Is Ohio's Council Made Up a Most Delegation—Address Republicans Heartily Advise the Optional Platform and Ballots for the Fight Enforcement of the Chinese Exclusion Law.

CINCINNATI, Ind., July 31.—[Special.]—If Gen. Harrison continues to make his own decision the country will soon have to know as well that a letter of acceptance will not be necessary. It is now well understood here that he will apply the platform of 1892 to the interpretation of the platform of 1895, or, in other words, that he will accept the record of the Republican party as to protection today, sentiment only to the progress of the people, commensurate to which has been the achievements of the party. His speech today was to 1,100 citizens of Henry County, a Republican stronghold, and it is hoped there he inadvertently to open thoroughfare. Harrison's speech that there was not a chance of the Union having an aggressive foreign policy.

The Republicans of Henry County, Indiana, to the number of about 1,100, paid their respects to Gen. Harrison today. They were a fine-looking body of men, and the visits from New Castle, Cadiz, Greensboro, Spiceland, and Knightstown were quite pig-tails. They were entertained by three bands of music, which enlivened the city during their stay. Along the lawns served by the New Castle managers were such notices as "Protect our home at the coming election," and "The call on August 5th for the Grand G. O. P. to vote for free coin is coming." Under these, among the visitors were other mottoes of evidence of the campaign of 1895. Gen. Harrison reached the delegation at the University Park. The enthusiasm of the visitors was fine. Waving lines of blue cards, a synopsis of Gen. Harrison's to the campaign, proved effective in which they were plied to the address. Henry County has three votes in electoral College as the Second District of Indiana, and was settled to Gresham, to which part the Republican managers of 1892 attribute the loss of the district.

The Harrison party was met at the train by a reception committee of 100 citizens, headed by Gen. Harrison's old commander, Gen. Manson. The procession was formed in the following order: Platform committee, Republican Central Committee, Republican Executive Committee, Republican Editorial Association, Republican Press Association, Republican Ladies' Reception Committee, Republican Glee Club, Republican Marching Club, Republican Clubs, Republican Citizens, Republican Ladies' Carriages, Republican Boys' Clubs, Republican Boys' Marching Clubs, Republican Boys' Carriages. The procession was headed by the Cadiz Band, which was followed by the Knightstown Band, and this by the Spiceland Band. The procession was escorted by the Henry County Republican Marching Club, which was followed by the Cadiz Marching Club. The line of march was from the University Park to the Court House, where Gen. Harrison was to speak. The streets were packed with people, and the line of march was lined with flags and bunting. The Court House was packed to the doors, and many people were unable to get in. Gen. Harrison was introduced by Gen. Manson, and was received with great applause. He said:

"I never said anything like it," continued the General. "Even if some newspaper should say that the Democrats are dissatisfied, I have said and done nothing. But we must, perhaps, with Democrats as with Republicans, that there are honest men in both parties who differ with the Democratic party who are not going to vote the Republican ticket, but who will bring to the support of the principles which they believe to be right, and which will be for the best interests of the country. I am not a partisan, and I do not believe that the Democratic party will be successful

The Liver

And kidneys are equal, each to a special duty in the work of purifying the blood. If either is sluggish or inactive, the blood becomes impure and poisonous, and disease is sure to follow. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, which acts directly upon these organs, making them strong and healthy. Thus it cures all blood diseases, such as Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, Blotches, Humors, and Catarrh. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the whole system.

Sound and Healthy

"I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health has been very poor. Six bottles brought it into perfect condition. I recommend every friend I have to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and this testimony is entirely unsolicited." C. C. Clark, Postmaster, Old Fort, Tenn.

Built Right Up

"I was all run down and unfit for business. I was induced to take a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it built me right up so that I was able to resume work." Clarence Cole, Cashier Merchants' Bank, Canajoharie, N. Y.

Biliousness Cured

"I have been using Hood's Sarsaparilla for biliousness, and have received more benefit from it than from any other medicine I have ever taken." C. H. Hayes, Commercial Traveler, 70 East Main street, Rochester, N. Y.

AMONG THE RAILROADS.

Opinions and Decisions of the Interstate Board of Trade.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission Takes Up the Charges of Discrimination Preferred Against Certain Roads—A Movement Towards the Restoration of Freight Rates—Fast-Record Shipments of Fruit, Stock, and Provisions—A Railroad Through Gold to St. Paul.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission entered on the Federal Bench yesterday and proceeded to hear the complaints of the Detroit Board of Trade against the Michigan Central, New York Central, and other roads charging discriminative against Detroit in favor of Buffalo. Several freight agents, as well as the chief officers of the Michigan Central, New York Central, and Lake Shore roads, were present. The hearing lasted all day, and was conducted with much formality. Judge Cooley presided, and associated with him were Commissioners Schoonmaker and Morrison. Mr. Bissell, counsel for the Commission, was present, and many lawyers representing Detroit, Buffalo, and New York were in attendance. The complaint was that Detroit was discriminated against in favor of Buffalo in the matter of rates on grain, flour, and provisions. The testimony was to the effect that the Detroit merchants were obliged to pay higher rates on their shipments than Buffalo merchants. The latter were also given the benefit of a lower rate on their shipments to the seaboard. The Detroit merchants claimed that they were entitled to the same rates as Buffalo merchants, because Detroit was as near to the seaboard as Buffalo. The railroad officials claimed that the difference in rates was justified by the fact that Buffalo was a more important point than Detroit, and that the business done there was greater than that done at Detroit. The testimony was not concluded when the Board adjourned, and it will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning. The Commissioners will probably not render a decision in the case for several days.

The Commissioners, Schoonmaker, Morrison, and Bissell, met in Judge Blodgett's office in this city yesterday afternoon, and discussed the question of the restoration of freight rates. A statement was prepared stating that the agreement of the railroad managers at the Saratoga meeting to restore rates on the 1st inst. had been made public, and requesting that the Commissioners be informed whether the roads had complied with the law in the matter of publishing their rates. The statement will be forwarded to the Commissioners at their various homes, and they will then take such action in the matter as they may deem necessary.

Efforts to Regain Rates.

The managers of the Western Freight Association, and Commissioner Cooley, met at Chairman Faithorn's office in this city yesterday afternoon, and discussed the question of the restoration of freight rates. A statement was prepared stating that the agreement of the railroad managers at the Saratoga meeting to restore rates on the 1st inst. had been made public, and requesting that the Commissioners be informed whether the roads had complied with the law in the matter of publishing their rates. The statement will be forwarded to the Commissioners at their various homes, and they will then take such action in the matter as they may deem necessary.
